UEFA Statutes (Edition 2026) and Regulations governing the Implementation of the UEFA Statutes (Edition 2026)

Dear Sir or Madam,

On 12 February 2026, the UEFA Congress approved several amendments to the UEFA Statutes. As a consequence, the Regulations governing the Implementation of the UEFA Statutes had to be amended to be in line with these statutory changes.

Accordingly, the UEFA Executive Committee approved, at its meeting in Istanbul on 20 May 2026, the revised Regulations governing the Implementation of the UEFA Statutes (Edition 2026), which will replace the 2024 edition.

For ease of reference, the Regulations governing the Implementation of the UEFA Statutes (Edition 2026), incorporating the amendments approved by the UEFA Executive Committee on 20 May 2026 in Istanbul, are to be found in the enclosed UEFA Statutes (Edition 2026) document.

The UEFA Statutes (Edition 2026) and the Regulations governing the Implementation of the UEFA Statutes (Edition 2026) will both enter into force on 1 July 2026, with the exception of the statutory amendments relating to the new FIFPRO Europe representative, which entered into force on 12 February 2026 (see circular letter No. 07/2026 dated 13 February 2026). We are pleased to enclose the amended version of these documents.

For the sake of clarity, please find below a summary of the articles of the UEFA Statutes (Edition 2026) entering into force on 1 July 2026. For a comprehensive overview of these amendments, we refer you to the relevant enclosure of our circular letter No. 01/2026 dated 13 January 2026.

REGULATIONS GOVERNING THE IMPLEMENTATION OF THE UEFA STATUTES

1. Application for Admission to UEFA

Article 1

A national football association that wishes to become a member of UEFA shall submit a written application to the UEFA Administration. If the UEFA Executive Committee considers, on a prima facie basis, that the application fulfils the admission criteria set out in Art. 5, para. 1, of the Statutes, the application is submitted to the UEFA Congress for decision.

Article 2

The UEFA Executive Committee may provisionally admit a national football association into membership. A national football association admitted on a provisional basis shall have the same rights and obligations as a Member Association, subject to Art. 18, para. 5 of the Statutes.

The application for admission must include the following:

- a) the statutes and regulations of the association;
- b) a declaration whereby the association submitting the application undertakes to observe UEFA's Statutes, regulations and decisions at all times;
- c) documents giving information about the internal organisation of the association submitting the application, as well as the competitions staged by the association;
- d) names of the members of all association organs.

Article 3

Provisional admission shall continue until the next UEFA Congress, which shall decide whether to admit or not as a Member Association a national football association that has been admitted provisionally.

2. Elections

Election of the President and Members of the UEFA Executive Committee and European Members of the FIFA Council

Article 4

¹ Candidates for the position of President of UEFA shall be proposed in writing to the UEFA Administration at least three months before the date set for the opening of the Congress. The Executive Committee may shorten this deadline if circumstances so require.

² Candidates for positions on the UEFA Executive Committee shall be proposed in writing to the UEFA Administration at least two months before the date set for the opening of the UEFA Congress. The Executive Committee may shorten this deadline if circumstances so require.

³ Each of the four British associations (i.e. England, Scotland, Northern Ireland and Wales) may propose a candidate from its own association for the position of the single FIFA Vice-Presidency which is reserved to them, but which is elected by the UEFA Congress. They may not propose any candidate for either of the two other FIFA Vice-Presidents to be elected by the UEFA Congress, nor may they propose any other candidate (other than for the female position) to be elected by the UEFA Congress as an ordinary member of the FIFA Council. All UEFA Member Associations, including the four British ones, are entitled to vote in all the above-mentioned elections.

Eligibility check and electoral committee

Article 4^{bis}

¹ Candidates for a seat on the Executive Committee, including for the position of President, female member and members representing the EFC, the EL and FIFPRO Europe, shall be subject to an eligibility check to be carried out by an electoral committee composed of the Chair of the UEFA Governance and Compliance Committee and two other members of this Committee (one of whom to be independent) appointed by the Chair on a case by case basis so as to avoid any actual or potential conflict of interest.

² Candidates for a seat on the Executive Committee are required, when submitting their respective candidacies, to complete and sign an eligibility questionnaire prepared for that purpose by the UEFA Administration and return it to the latter, along with a criminal record certificate issued within the last six months and a copy of their valid passport.

³ Upon receipt of a candidature, the UEFA Administration shall forward it without delay to the Chair of the Governance and Compliance Committee, so that the eligibility checks can be carried out by the electoral committee to be set up by the Chair for that purpose. Exceptionally, with regards to the submission of the criminal record certificate, the Chair of the Governance and Compliance Committee may, upon request of a candidate, grant an extension to the deadline (set for the submission of candidatures), provided that a criminal record certificate was requested before the deadline. Such an extension to the deadline must allow sufficient time for the electoral committee to conduct the eligibility check ahead of the Congress where the election takes place.

⁴ The electoral committee shall pass a decision on the eligibility of a candidate within 21 days of receipt of the required documents and any additional information it deems necessary for the candidate to provide.

⁶ The UEFA Administration shall immediately notify candidates of the decision taken by the electoral committee on their eligibility.

⁷ If the Chair of the UEFA Governance and Compliance Committee is prevented from performing his above-mentioned duties due to a conflict of interest or for any other reason, he shall be replaced by the first Vice-Chair of this Committee and, if the latter is in the same situation, he is replaced by the second Vice-Chair of this Committee.

Election of European Vice-Presidents and Members of the FIFA Council

Article 5

If a Vice-President or a person elected to the FIFA Council vacates the position during his term of office, the UEFA Executive Committee may, upon proposal of the President, appoint a replacement for the remaining period until the next UEFA Congress. Any such replacement may not take over the office of Vice-President of FIFA.

Appointment of the Chairs and Members of the Organs for the Administration of Justice, as well as the Chairs and Members of Committees

Article 6

The Member Associations shall submit proposals in writing to the UEFA Administration for the appointment of the Chairs and members of the Organs for the Administration of Justice and Committees. The UEFA Administration shall set an appropriate deadline for the submission of proposals. The EFC, the EL, FIFPRO Europe and the UEFA Administration may also propose candidates for the UEFA's Organs for the Administration of Justice for appointment by the UEFA Executive Committee.

3. UEFA Treasurer

Article 6^{bis}

¹ The UEFA Treasurer assists the UEFA Administration with the financial management of UEFA and chairs the Finance Committee.

² The UEFA Treasurer shall have relevant experience and qualifications (e.g. be a chartered accountant or have a background in finance, banking, or business) to be appointed by the Executive Committee, upon proposal of the President.

⁵ The further specific rights and duties of the UEFA Treasurer are defined by contract.

4. Coming into Force

Article 7

These Regulations were approved by the UEFA Executive Committee at its meeting of 5 December 1997 in Geneva and came into force on 24 December 1997.
